Note: In addition to the elective courses listed above, there may be other relevant elective options that support the goals of the social justice program. These include infrequently offered courses, courses taught on an experimental basis, independent studies, or readings courses that address justice issues. A student may request permission from the program coordinator to count ONE such course toward the minor. The request should be made in writing and include the following:

- the course description or a copy of the independent study outline or readings plan
- an explanation of how the course would enhance the depth or breadth of the student's study of social justice.
